Ottawa Goal Is $260,000 For 1961 State Of Israel Bond Drive

Since so many people of Ottawa have visited Israel and have had the opportunity to see for themselves the tremendous progress which the young democracy has made in the past few years, the Executive Committee of the State of Israel Bond Drive in Ottawa was unanimous in accepting a goal of $260,000 for this year's campaign.

This quota of $260,000, representing twenty times $13,000, is in keeping with the Bar-Mitzvah Year of the State of Israel, according to an announcement by Jacie C. Horwitz, Q.C., general chairman of the 1961 campaign for the sale of State of Israel Bonds in Ottawa.

Using Symbol "13"

Mr. Horwitz, who is serving as chairman for the second consecutive year, pointed out that the symbol "13" is being used in all parts of Canada and the United States to commemorate the 13th Anniversary of the re-birth of the State of Israel. Mr. Horwitz is a veteran in Zionist activity having been involved in programs and other projects on behalf of Palestine and Israel ever since his Young Judea and college days.

Working closely with the Men's Division, the women, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bertram Loeb, have pledged their full support to help realize this year's goal. Mrs. Loeb is serving as chairman of the Women's Division for the third consecutive year, and is the only woman in Ottawa and one out of five in Canada, to be known as a Woman of Valour. This distinction is accorded only to those women who buy or sell at least $100,000 of Israel Bonds.

The honorary chairmen of this year's campaign are Lawrence Freiman and Bertram Loeb, both of whom have been closely associated with the campaign in this community since its inception in 1953. Both Mr. Freiman and Mr. Loeb are members of the Canada-Israel Securities, Limited, the corporation responsible for the sale of Israel Bonds throughout Canada.

In order to achieve this year's quota of $260,000, Mr. Horwitz outlined a very intensive program which was inaugurated two weeks ago at a special leadership luncheon at which the chairman was the host. Almost one-fifth of the campaign was pledged at this luncheon.

Yom Kippur Appeals

As in the past few years, the highlight of this year's campaign will once again be the Yom Kippur Appeals to be conducted in Congregations Beth Shalom, Agudath Israel, B'nai Jacob and Machzikei Adas. As a prelude to the Appeals, on Kol Nidre Eve and Yom Kippur Day, a series of parlour meetings within each congregation will be held in the vestry rooms between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. These meetings will be addressed by Moe A. Appel, assistant general manager of the State of Israel Bond Drive in Canada, and by Harry J. Halperin, city manager in Ottawa.

The Israel Bond Committee has the assurance of every congregation that the membership will support the drive to the fullest extent. Last year the Synagogues of Ottawa were responsible for almost 75% of the total sale of Israel Bonds in the city.

Yom Kippur Appeals will be conducted in Congregation Beth Shalom, of which Bernard M. Alexander, Q.C. is president and Harold Jacie C. Horwitz, Q.C.

Mrs. Bertram Loeb

N. Pearl is the Israel Bond chairman. In the Agudath Israel Congregation, Abraham H. Lief, Q.C. is president and Al Laporter is the Israel Bond chairman. Jack Lobel is president of B'nai Jacob Congregation, and I. J. Fleisher, the Israel Bond chairman, is also president of the Sons of Jacob Loan Society in Trust, which assists the members in the purchase of their Israel Bonds. Saul Saslove is president of Machzikei Adas Congregation and Jack Steinberg is chairman of the Israel Bond Committee. The respective Rabbis are Rabbi Simon L. Eckstein, Rabbi J. Benjamin Friedberg and Rabbi Stanley G. Weber.

One of the early activities of the 1961 Israel Bond Drive schedule was the annual traditional parlour meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Loeb on Thursday, September 7, which was attended by a large number of leading investors in Israel Bonds. Israeli Ambassador Yaacov Herzog was the guest speaker, and one of America's foremost Jewish entertainers, Lou Mason, made his first local appearance for Bonds. Those who participated in the program were Jacie C. Horwitz, Q.C., general chairman; Bertram Loeb, honorary chairman and host; Alex Betcherman, president of the Vaad Ha'Ir; Lawrence Freiman, honorary chairman and national president of the Zionist Organization of Canada and A. H. Lief, Q.C.

Women's Division

The Women's Division will hold its first executive committee meeting on Thursday, September 14 in the Social Hall of the Jewish Community Centre. Plans will be discussed and formulated for a very interesting and stimulating campaign.

In 1960, the Jewish women of Ottawa were responsible for the sale and purchase of about 30% of all the Israel Bonds transacted in this city. According to a statement made by Mrs. Jan Pearce, international chairman of the Women's Division when she was reporting at the National Leaders' Conference in Israel, the women have bought and sold more than 35% of all Israel Bonds throughout the world. It is expected that the Jewish women of Ottawa will surpass their own high standard of last year and will reach the world figure of 35%.

Among the interesting projects of the Women's Division will be the annual Tea at Kinneret in October, and the annual Testimonial Luncheon with a prominent guest speaker. Mrs. Loeb is this year being assisted by the following Vice-Chairmen: Mrs. M. (Vera) Winer, Mrs. H. (Marion) Bessin, Mrs. I. (Muriel) Levine and Mrs. Florence Kizell.

Under the chairmanship of Marvin Chodkoff, the first joint Synagogue Service and Breakfast will be sponsored by the Beth Shalom Men's Club in the Beth Shalom Synagogue. A closing joint Synagogue Service and Breakfast Meeting will be held on Sunday, October 29 at Agudath Israel Synagogue under the auspices of the Beth Shalom Men's Club of that congregation, of which Israel Shinder is the president.

Hyman Soloway, Q.C., prominent local barrister was elected president of the Jewish Community Centre of Ottawa at the first meeting of the new Board of Directors held recently. He is a former president of the Jewish Community Council of Ottawa and of Congregation Agudath Achim.

Mr. Soloway succeeds to the post held by Bernard M. Alexander, Q.C. for the past twelve years. Mr. Alexander, together with Alex Betcherman and Morris Zagerman become honorary officers of the organization.

The complete slate of officers, committee chairmen and directors follows:

President: Hyman Soloway, Q.C.; Vice-Presidents: Emanuel M. Glatt, Martin K. Levinson; Treasurer: Roy M. Saip; Honorary Secretary: Morris S. Cohen.

Committee Chairmen: Adult Program: Dr. Nathan Schecter; Dedication: A. Louis Ashbar; Finance and Budget: Morris Zagerman; Health & Physical Education: Lawrence Slover; House: Isidore Stone; Insurance: J. Harold Shenkman; Membership: Sol Max; Youth: Dr. M. Ralph Berke.

Board of Directors: The officers, honorary officers and committee chairmen listed above together with Joseph Ages, Mrs. Bernard M. Alexander, Samuel Berger, Q.C., Mrs. M. Ralph Berke, Morris Berlin, Hyman Bessin, Dr. Irving I.

Representatives of B'nai B'rith Lodges and Chapters will meet on Thursday, September 21 under the chairmanship of Stan Katz, president of Parliament Lodge. This meeting will study a program of B'nai B'rith participation in this year's campaign. As in the past, B'nai B'rith, in co-operation with the Israel Bond Committee, will spearhead the community effort for a closing function towards the end of the drive. Under the marshalling of Nap Kapinsky, B'nai B'rith members will once again make an effort to sell an Israel Bond to every Jewish family in Ottawa.

Usher In High Holy Days Sunday Eve At Sunset

Sunday evening at sunset, Jews the world over will usher in Rosh Hashanah and will mark the inception of the Jewish New Year 5722 in a solemn and reverent manner. Rosh Hashanah begins the Ten Days of Penitence which culminate in the fasting and in the religious services of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atone-ment.

This year, Rosh Hashanah begins at sundown on Sunday evening, September 10 and ends after sundown on Tuesday, September 12. The Hebrew calendar records the beginning of the Holy Day as the first of Tishre, 5722. Yom Kippur begins at sun- down, Tuesday September 19 and ends after sundown on Wednes- day, September 20.

Emphasizing especially man's ability for self-conquest and for return to the path of salvation, Rosh Hashanah also proclaims God's sovereignty over the universe and the lives of men and nations. It is during this "Day of Judgment" when the Lord, "like a shepherd causes the souls of his flock to pass before him," that all men are urged to review their deeds of the past year and to pray for His forgiveness. This message gives the holiday a univer- sal motif.

Hebrew School News

School In Full Session

Tuesday, September 5 marked the opening session of the school year for the Hillel Academy Day Schools and the Hebrew Schools. Over 55 children are registered for Grade 1 Central and West End branches of the Day School. The general increase in enrollment is a significant step by members of our community who are endeavouring to give their children a meaningful and supervised Jewish education.

Over 500 pupils are now enrolled in the various departments of the Ottawa Talmud Torah Board.

Welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Malamuth

Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Malamuth, formerly of Winnipeg and more recently of Israel have joined the staff of the Ottawa Talmud Torah. Both have had many years of successful teaching in the field of Hebrew educa- tion. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Malamuth and their children Aviva 15 and Naftali 11.

Succoth Observed Sept. 25 to Oct. 3

The Festival of Succoth begins on the evening of the 15th day of Tishre, corresponding this year to Sunday evening, September 24. It is observed for nine days of which the first two and last two days are full holidays and the intervening days half holi- days.

Referred to also as the Festival of Booths or Tabernacles, Succoth is a reminder of the forty years wan- dering of the children of Israel in the wilderness after their deliverance from Egyptian bondage. During that time they were compelled to live in tents or building booths wherever they stopped.

The succah or booth is a little tabernacle built of wood or canvass and is covered with branches of trees and plants so that the heavens and the stars are visible overhead.

In ancient Palestine, the festival was celebrated by giving thanks to the Almighty for the bounties of the land. The Pilgrim Fathers in America after they had gathered in their har- vest set aside a day which they called Thanksgiving. Steeped in the knowl- edge of the Bible they based their thanksgiving day on the Festival of Succoth.

The eighth day of the festival (Monday, October 2) is called Shemi- ni Atzereth (the Eighth Day of So- lemn Assembly). On that day the Scroll of Ecclesiastes is read to re- mind people of the transient character of life, memorial services for the departed are recited, and a prayer is offered so that the earth may produce bountiful crops next year.

The ninth day, Simchat Torah is the most joyous day of the festival as it marks the annual completion and commencement of the reading of the Law in the Synagogue.

Reminiscences of Israel

Rabbi Simon L. Eckstein

Every tourist in foreign shores has his own approach to sight- seeing. There are those who rush about with a guide-book, trying to cram as many famous sights into their short schedule as it can possibly bear. Others wander around at leisure, mingling with the natives to get the "feel" of the country they are visiting. I would not say that any one of these methods is wrong since something can be said in favour of either approach.

When I went on a visit to Israel, my choice was obvious: I was going to experience the Holy Land through the Holy Bible. I can wholeheartedly recommend this approach to everyone, cleric or layman, religious or sceptic alike.

For us who believe in the Divine nature of the Scriptures every foot of this country's soil is a reminder of Revelation whereas those who accept the Bible as an historical narrative only can practically use it as a guide-book to Israel.

But for all of us the Bible has something to say in this corner of the Middle East. Equipped with this knowledge I was struck immediately on arrival by the most amazing cultural phenomenon of our times, the complete revival of the Hebrew language.

In Israel Hebrew is today a living language, the idiom of daily communication, the language of instruction in all schools and colleges, the language of governmental services, radio and press.

Most exciting for the newcomer are the signboards in the streets. It seems somewhat strange at first to see the big neon lights of a department store inviting customers in big Hebrew letters. At first it almost seems like sacrilege.

A Rip Van Winkle who lived here 2,000 years ago and woke up now, would not have much difficulty finding his way. He might be puzzled by new words for "automobile" or "dry-cleaning establishment" for which he would not find any reference in the Bible.

But he would be able to guess at the meanings of un- familiar words because Israel's linguists were careful to in- troduce from other languages only the most essential words. For most of the technical terms which had to be coined in modern Hebrew, they adapted related biblical roots or took biblical words and gave them new nuances. Thus, e.g., when the need arose to find a Hebrew term for electricity, they took the word "hashmal" which the prophet Ezekiel used in the sense of "amber", a mineral from which electricity is generated.

The revival of biblical Hebrew was not only motivated by national pride — it was also essential to find a tongue for the Jews who immigrated here from over seventy different countries. Had some existing spoken language been arbi- trarily chosen as the official one, objections would have been raised by everyone in favour of his own mother tongue. The selection of Hebrew was the most obvious choice for the Jewish people returned to their homeland. This had an un- foreseen effect on the younger generation. Hebrew being this mother-tongue, it stimulated their interest in the Bible.

Today Bible study is an obligatory subject in every school in Israel. Only the approach varies according to in- dividual belief. Orthodox schools teach it as a G-d-given book, others as a work of history and literature. But in general it must be admitted that the Israeli child's knowledge of the Bible is much deeper than that of his Canadian con- temporary. Many public quiz contests are held in schools and on the radio between competing teams of teen-age bible scholars, and the beautiful language of the Psalms of David is as familiar to the Jewish child as the story of Red Riding Hood.

It should also be mentioned that the Bible in its English translation, whether it be the King James version or any other revised version cannot remotely recapture the literary merit of the Hebrew original.

This is the fate of all translations but in the case of the Bible it has the effect of depriving the Western reader of the most beautiful poetic creation of all times.

Modern poetry in Israel has been profoundly influenced by gleanings from the Bible. The revival of Hebrew as a spoken tongue is all the more remarkable since it is the only instance of a national language having been successfully recreated. The Irish have failed where the Israelis have suc- ceeded. True, it was a long and arduous process which preceded by over half a century the creation of the Jewish state.

It was a great experience for me to converse in the language of the Bible with all the people I met in Israel. It is more than a feeling of religious consciousness which ani- mates one here, it is a sensation of closeness to the source of life which still inspires all mankind.

High Holy Day Message

Rabbi J. Benjamin Friedberg

I am grateful for the opportunity afforded me of saying "hello" to the Jewish Community of Ottawa, through the medium of this bulletin. I hope that I shall meet many of you personally in the weeks and months to come when we join in common effort in the various areas of Jewish communal life. Though reputedly, "all beginnings are difficult," my "beginnings" in this community have been eased considerably through the consideration of my congregants and the cooperation of many others whom I have met.

As we stand at the threshold of another year, instead of hope there is great concern, even foreboding and bewilderment in the face of a world in upheaval. There is a sense of helplessness before events that have gone beyond us.

It might well be worth recalling the words of a Hassidic saint, Reb Levi Yitzhak of Berdichev as he stood musing in his doorway on Rosh Hashonah Eve. A cobbler rushed by in great haste. "Where are you rushing?" asked the Rabbi. And the cobbler answered. "There is so little time and I have so many soles to mend." Reb Levi Yitzhak burst into tears "Ah," said he, "there is so little time and we do not mend our souls."

Implied in this tale is the essence of faith about the essentials of Man. We can change if we but will it. The confusion in the world is but a reflection of our own confusion. Our own little worlds are full of the same senseless lusts and power plays. The great indifference is matched by our own apathy.

There is so little time and there is so much to mend — but there is always the hope of mending and with hope there is possibility. This is the spirit and the meaning of the New Year.

Mrs. Friedberg and I would like to wish you a year of health, and satisfaction and fulfilment. We join you in prayer for a year of peace — a year of spiritual revitalization which will see the advance of man's welfare everywhere.

Day Campers Enjoy Excellent Summer Season

One hundred and seventy-five children between the ages of 4 and 12 spent one of the most enjoyable 6 weeks of their young lives at the Jewish Community Centre Day Camp this summer.

The excellent facilities of the Centre together with a competent staff combined to make this the best season in the 11 year history of Centre day-camping in Ottawa.

The children loved the outdoor pool in particular and a great deal of water activity was scheduled whenever the weather permitted swimming. In addition, the program included athletics in the new gymnasium, arts and crafts, dramatics, singing, folk dancing and Onegei Shabbat.

Elias Z. Aronstam was the camp director. The Day Camp committee was composed of:

Dr. Morris Resnick, Chairman; Dr. M. Ralph Berke, Mrs. Arch. M. Goldman, Bernard Lesh, Dr. Lyon N. Pearlman, Sam Zaret, Mrs. Sol Sherman and Hy Hecberg.

NOW save tax dollars through the STATE OF ISRAEL BONDS RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN

The State of Israel Bonds Retirement Savings Plan enables the individual to accumulate a sum of money to provide an income for his retirement while, at the same time, offering him the same opportunity for tax savings that was formerly limited to members of group plans. An important factor of this plan is the financial aid it gives to the State of Israel as all payments made into the fund are invested immediately in Israel Bonds, thus providing much needed funds for Israel's economic development. All payments into the Retirement Plan will be credited to the individual as regular Bond purchases in his community.
